Policeman Engages In Morning Gun Fight With Two Negroes

"Get it, you son of a b—!" very loudly was what the unidentified negro said early Saturday when he was shot by Patrolman (Garnett) on the corner of Main and Third streets. The officer was returning to his home in a hurry-up time. One turned and the other had given chase a half block and up to a running gun fight in which eight or ten shots were fired. None was hurt.

The Lure Of The Army

Yes, you bet! I'm home again, after serving overseas, I thought I had enough of it. There were many more like me. We used to growl and grumble at the way they made us drill and march when they put us through that little canteen drill.
